to overcome the impact, smartphone players with huge online presence started offering EMI and easy payment options to keep the sales going.

Amid all this, China-based vendors' market share improved sequentially owing to their high decibel marketing, increased credit line to distributors and efficient channel management. The sales, however, picked up in 2017 and smartphone players heaved a sign of relief as the cash flow got better.

"In the first quarter of this year, the smartphone shipment was 26.5 million units while in the second quarter, it was 28.4 million units," Prabhu Ram, General Manager, Industry Intelligence Group (IIG) at CMR, told IANS.
