Fake IPL in Gujarat village Ahmedabad bombarded with dupes Russian punters

AHMEDABAD: It's not cricket, but a Gujarat village almost pulled off an elaborate con with a fake IPL – complete with farm labourers masquerading as players, a Harsha Bhogle mimic and even an "official" Telegram channel to take punts – for a remote an "official" lelegram channel to take punts – for a remote audience of Russian punters addicted to betting on the thrills and spills of 1720. The charade playing out in a remote farm at Molipur village of Mehsana district reached the "knockout quarterfinal" stage before the organisers of the "Indian premier cricket league" were caught out by the cops. The gang of cons who set up "IPL" matches at a farm in a Gujarat village accepted bets from punters in Russian cities of Tiver, Voronezh and Moscow. The cricket matches were broadcast live over a "

execute the con. "Shoeb hired the farm of Ghulam Masin and installed halogen lights there. He readled 21 fam labourers, promising them Rs 400 per match. Next, he hired cameramen and bought t-shirts of IPL teams," police official Bhavesh Rathod said. Shoeb later revealed to the police that while working at the Russian pub, he had met one Asif Mohammed, who masterminded the con. Asif introduced the Russian punters in the pub to the nuances of cricket.

Once back in Moliour, Shoeb teamed up with Sadiq Davda, Saqib, Salif and Mohammed Kolu, who played umpires in the fake IPL matches. Saqib, a resident of Meerut, volunteered to be the commentator.
